

Active Counseling Class

Active Voice Examples:

1. The chef cooked a delicious meal.
2. She writes letters to her friends every weekend.
3. John painted the entire house last summer.
4. They play football in the park every evening.
5. The company will launch a new product next month.
6. The teacher explained the lesson clearly.
7. The dog chased the cat around the yard.
8. My brother cleaned the garage yesterday.
9. The doctor examined the patient thoroughly.
10. We watched an interesting movie last night.

Passive Voice Examples:

1. A delicious meal was cooked by the chef.
2. Letters are written by her to her friends every weekend.
3. The entire house was painted by John last summer.
4. Football is played by them in the park every evening.
5. A new product will be launched by the company next month.
6. The lesson was explained clearly by the teacher.
7. The cat was chased around the yard by the dog.
8. The garage was cleaned by my brother yesterday.
9. The patient was examined thoroughly by the doctor.
10. An interesting movie was watched by us last night.

Active Counseling Class

Negative Sentences:

Active Voice:

1. She did not finish her homework.
2. They are not eating dinner.
3. I will not attend the meeting.
4. He doesn't watch TV.
5. The team didn't win the match.
6. The child has not broken the toy.
7. We are not going to the party.
8. My friend did not call me last night.
9. You should not leave your bag here.
10. The workers didn't complete the project on time.

Passive Voice:

1. The homework was not finished by her.
2. Dinner is not being eaten by them.
3. The meeting will not be attended by me.
4. TV is not watched by him.
5. The match was not won by the team.
6. The toy has not been broken by the child.
7. The party is not going to be attended by us.
8. A call was not made by my friend last night.
9. The bag should not be left here by you.
10. The project was not completed by the workers on time.

Active Counseling Class

Question Sentences:

Active Voice:

1. Did she finish her homework?
2. Are they eating dinner?
3. Will I attend the meeting?
4. Does he watch TV?
5. Did the team win the match?
6. Has the child broken the toy?
7. Are we going to the party?
8. Did my friend call me last night?
9. Should you leave your bag here?
10. Did the workers complete the project on time?

Passive Voice:

1. Was the homework finished by her?
2. Is dinner being eaten by them?
3. Will the meeting be attended by me?
4. Is TV watched by him?
5. Was the match won by the team?
6. Has the toy been broken by the child?
7. Is the party going to be attended by us?
8. Was a call made by my friend last night?
9. Should the bag be left here by you?
10. Was the project completed by the workers on time?

Active Counseling Class

Exclamatory Sentences:

Active Voice:

1. Wow! She finished her homework!
2. Oh no! They are not eating dinner!
3. What a surprise! I will attend the meeting!
4. Amazing! He watches TV every day!
5. Incredible! The team won the match!
6. Unbelievable! The child broke the toy!
7. Hooray! We are going to the party!
8. Oh my! My friend called me last night!
9. Great! You should leave your bag here!
10. Fantastic! The workers completed the project on time!

Passive Voice:

1. Wow! The homework was finished by her!
2. Oh no! Dinner is not being eaten by them!
3. What a surprise! The meeting will be attended by me!
4. Amazing! TV is watched by him every day!
5. Incredible! The match was won by the team!
6. Unbelievable! The toy was broken by the child!
7. Hooray! The party is going to be attended by us!
8. Oh my! A call was made by my friend last night!
9. Great! The bag should be left here by you!
10. Fantastic! The project was completed by the workers on time!

Active Counseling Class

Request/Order Sentences:

Active Voice:

1. Please finish your homework.
2. Eat your dinner.
3. Attend the meeting.
4. Watch TV now.
5. Win the match!
6. Break the toy carefully.
7. Go to the party.
8. Call me later.
9. Leave your bag here.
10. Complete the project on time.

Passive Voice:

1. Let the homework be finished by you.
2. Let the dinner be eaten by you.
3. Let the meeting be attended by me.
4. Let the TV be watched by him.
5. Let the match be won by the team!
6. Let the toy be broken by the child carefully.
7. Let the party be attended by us.
8. Let a call be made by my friend later.
9. Let the bag be left here by you.
10. Let the project be completed by the workers on time.